

Just Enough Carrots – Story Problems Kindergarten

Start unknown.

Represent numbers to 10

We bought some carrots. Rabbit ate 6 carrots. Now we have 3 carrots left. How many carrots did we buy?		I ate some carrots for lunch. Then I ate 5 more for snack. Altogether I ate 7 carrots. How many carrots did I eat at lunch?
I ate some carrots for lunch. Then I ate 2 more for snack. Altogether I ate 5 carrots. How many carrots did I eat at lunch?		We bought some carrots. Rabbit ate 2 carrots. Now we have 6 carrots left. How many carrots did we buy?
We bought some carrots. Rabbit ate 1 carrot. Now we have 5 carrots left. How many carrots did we buy?		I ate some carrots for lunch. Then I ate 8 more for snack. Altogether I ate 10 carrots. How many carrots did I eat at lunch?
I ate some carrots for lunch. Then I ate 3 more for snack. Altogether I ate 9 carrots. How many carrots did I eat at lunch?		We bought some carrots. Rabbit ate 4 carrots. Now we have 3 carrots left. How many carrots did we buy?	