

Division Stories

Read and complete the following division questions. Show your number sentences with both division symbols. Hmm... What might happen with the leftover student?

1. 25 students, 3 four-court balls. How many students per four-court?	2. 13 girls, 5 skipping ropes. How many girls per skipping rope?
3. 12 boys, 3 soccer balls. How many boys per soccer drill station?	4. 15 grade 5s, 4 pizzas. How many students per pizza?
5. 10 grade 4s, 3 jumbo cinnamon buns. How many students per cinnamon bun?	6. 25 students, 2 teachers. How many students per teacher?

Complete the following division questions. Do any of them have remainders? _____

1. $20 \div 2 =$ _____ 2. $15 \div 3 =$ _____ 3. $12 \div 4 =$ _____ 4. $12 \div 3 =$ _____

5. $14 \div 4 =$ _____ 6. $20 \div 4 =$ _____ 7. $18 \div 6 =$ _____ 8. $18 \div 3 =$ _____

Write your own division stories and then solve them.

1.	2.	3.
4.	5.	6.

Write a few more division stories for a friend to solve.

1.	2.	3.
----	----	----

Complete the following division facts.

$21 \div 7 = \underline{\quad}$ $28 \div 7 = \underline{\quad}$ $35 \div 7 = \underline{\quad}$ $42 \div 7 = \underline{\quad}$ $56 \div 7 = \underline{\quad}$

$16 \div 8 = \underline{\quad}$ $24 \div 8 = \underline{\quad}$ $32 \div 8 = \underline{\quad}$ $40 \div 8 = \underline{\quad}$ $80 \div 8 = \underline{\quad}$

$30 \div 6 = \underline{\quad}$ $36 \div 6 = \underline{\quad}$ $42 \div 6 = \underline{\quad}$ $54 \div 6 = \underline{\quad}$ $60 \div 6 = \underline{\quad}$